If you have any questions about the book returns please contact the library at 330-674-5972 and ask for Bill.

We would like to thank Nature's Food Market, The Holmes County Training Center and East Holmes Local Schools for partnering with us in this endeavor. By working together, we make Holmes County better. Thank you for your support.

As always, we are proud to serve as YOUR county library system.

Louise is part of the staff at the East Branch, working as a Page Technician. She recently retired (after 27 years) from the East Holmes Schools, working mostly in the school library. Although Louise loves being retired, she also likes the connection to books, and library patrons in her job at the East Branch.

Married to Richard (45 years), they live in the country outside of Fredericksburg. They have 3 children, and 6 grandchildren and she loves being a grandmother- "it's the best"!

Hobbies include reading, flower gardening, and spending time with family and friends. Louise also volunteers at Save and Serve, and is an active member at Martin's Creek Mennonite Church.

The New Book Returns are FINALLY in Place!

We are happy to announce that five new book returns have been placed throughout Holmes County to assist library patrons with returning materials. The locations are:

- 1. The Holmes County Training Center near Holmesville
- 2. Nature's Food Market in Berlin
- 3. Mount Hope Elementary
- 4. Charm Elementary
- 5. Winesburg Elementary

The five book returns and a cargo van were purchased through a Federal Grant award. The van will be used to empty the book returns Monday—Friday and items will be checked in using the previous day's due date.

Please Remember:

Do Not leave materials outside of the book returns. If the items are stolen or damaged your library account will be charged to have them replaced.
