New Book

Discussion Group

A new book discussion group for adults has formed at the Central library and is held on the last Tuesday of the month. We are offering an afternoon and evening discussion so people can attend at their convenience. The September book was Girl in Translation by Jean Kwok. The October meeting will be on Tuesday, October 25 at 1 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. We will be discussing Someone Knows My Name by Lawrence Hill. Someone Knows My Name tells the story of Aminata Diallo, a young girl who was kidnapped and sold into slavery and her quest for freedom. The November meeting date is Tuesday, November 29 at 1 p.m. and 6:30 p.m., book to be decided. There is no cost to attend the book discussions and all are welcome to join us for a fun and informal conversation about books. Refreshments will be served. For more information, call Christina at 330-674-5972, ext. 208.

The Big Year with Greg Miller

Join us Monday, November 7 at 6:30 pm at the Central Library as Greg Miller talks about his “Big Year” in birding and the film of the same name. For more information call 330-674-5972, ext. 211.

Family Search

Great news for all genealogists—The Family Search microfilms can now be ordered directly from the site. The film ordering website is located at <https://www.familysearch.org/films>. Patrons can create a personal account and select the preferred Affiliate Library (or family history center) where the films they order will be sent. They can make the payment of $5.50 for renting the film using a credit or debit card, or by PayPal. The rule still applies that if a film is ordered three times, it may remain at the requesting library indefinitely. For more information, contact the reference department at 330-674-5972 ext. 203.
