

Making the Most of Your Giving

We thank you ...

Friends of the Library member Marsha Jones and Library Director Paula Cicconetti discuss the placement of new outdoor seating made possible by Friends of the Library supporters - Carole Norman, Chair

"For a community to be healthy and whole, we must base our values on our love and concern for others and nurture the community that supports us!" - Jessica McConville, Secretary-Treasurer, Clark Community Center

"Thank you for your generous support of the arts in Holmes County. Come see us in our new community space for the arts in 2022!" - Holley Johnson, Director Holmes Center for the Arts

"We agree, our organizations are grateful to be part of the Holmes County Heritage Partnership which represents local organizations committed to positively impacting the community." Thank you for your support! - Marty Grice, President, Holmes County Historical Society and Cheryl Abernathy, President, Holmes County Genealogical Society

"History of Recipe Boxes" by speaker Michael Amstutz. The County Line Historical Society provides five educational programs yearly, free admission and open to the public. Tim Neal, President

HERITAGE PARTNERSHIP

HOLMES COUNTY

"The Killbuck Valley Museum is one of the best kept secrets of Holmes County - and the Heritage Partnership has been the best thing to happen to the KVHS since I've been involved as President" - Bob Porter

Although the Covid threat is still within our communities, we are thankful to our members and volunteers who have supported us through these times of trial. Although we have made strides to reopen and hold limited activities, we are operating on meager incomes and continue to need your support.

Sincerely, Carole, Holley, Marty, Tim, Cheryl, Bob and Jessica

P.S. Your memberships and donations make a difference! We appreciate you.